InLoox now! The Best of Both Worlds

Project management has never been easier

InLoox now! – the reliable, flexible and secure project platform in the cloud – offers you a project management solution „à la carte“:

Discover the exceptional flexibility of InLoox now! and how to also reduce investment and operating costs. InLoox now! offers you a fair, transparent leasing model coupled with cloud technology, so you only pay what you actually use. You save the costs for software, server, installation and upgrades. It relieves stress on your IT administration – and on your budget – while your project infrastructure is always up to date.

You have the option of managing your projects via web browser or directly from Microsoft Outlook for Windows. InLoox now! combines the ease of use of a classic desktop project management software with the advantages of an online project platform.

The screenshot displays the InLoox now! web interface within a browser window. The browser address bar shows <https://inloox-en.inlooxnow.com/views/> and the page title is "Media consulting (2012-00...". The interface features a menu bar with "File", "Start", "Edit", "View", "Templates", and "Reports". Below the menu is a toolbar with various icons for "New Activity", "New Milestone", "Edit", "Delete", "Undo", "Redo", "Arrange", "Done", "Flag", "Color", "Remove Constraint", "Remove Dependency", "Scheduling Settings", and "No Notification".

The main content area is divided into two sections. On the left is a task list table with columns for "Name", "Start date", and "End date". On the right is a Gantt chart showing project activities over time, with bars for different tasks and dependencies.
